promoting the classical guitar and lute in Northamptonshire

Code of Conduct for NCGLS Members

All members of the Northamptonshire Classical Guitar and Lute Society must:

- Place the well being and safety of the members above all considerations, including developing performance.
- Operate without discrimination on the grounds of age, gender, race, colour, language, religion or belief, political persuasion or other opinion, national or social origin or other characteristic.
- Respect the basic human rights, personal dignity and worth of each individual.
- Not encourage members, performers or officials to violate the rules of society.
- Observe the authority and the decisions of its officials.
- Not hold the society responsible for any injury, damage or loss to their person or property that has occurred during an event organized by the society.
